Physiotherapy Referral Processes – GP Initiated Referral and Patient Self-Referral

GP sees patient and decides that patient needs physio referral

OR

Patient decides to self-refer to physiotherapy

GP completes GP referral form

Patient completes self-referral form

Patient hands in form to GP reception

Patient returns form by post

Patient returns form to Physiotherapy Department directly

Patient returns form by email

Self-referral form scanned in and saved to patient record by GP surgery

Referral sent to Physiotherapy via the ‘Refer to Physiotherapy’ button on MSK tab

Patient hands in form to GP reception

Patient returns form by post

Patient returns form to Physiotherapy Department directly

Patient returns form by email

Action by GP surgery

Action by patient